DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 9, 11, and 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP708155670A. See the Abstract and Figure 3. The device can be arranged with an electric field such that the workpiece is either charged positive or negative. The apparatus uses current detectors for operation control.

Claims 9, 11, and 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP06000684A. See the Abstract and the Figures. The device has an electric field which prevents adhesion of scattered particles during laser surface treatment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP408155670A as applied to claim 9 above, and further in view of JP7266073A. The base reference does not describe a magnetic field applied to the point of action on the workpiece. JP7266073A shows well known machining using the magnetic field applied to the point of action. The addition of the magnetic field to the base reference would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art because the field improves the particle removal action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 9, 11, and 13-16 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
